IV. GOVERNMENT SECURITIES ON ISSUE.

NOTE.—Government Securities on Issue, as set out in Tables Nos. 11 and 12, may not be aggregated without adjustment to indicate what is sometimes described as "public debt" or "net public debt".

For example, these tables do not include "public" securities or other forms of indebtedness reformable by semi-governmental or local authorities, or the debt of other bodies guaranteed by governments. Again, there are forms of debt not evidenced by the issue of securities.

Some of the securities included in these tables are held by the Governments themselves. For example, a State Government may hold temporarily—or even for long periods—securities issued by the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth itself, through such institutions as the National Debt Commission, or through the Trust Funds, holds large investments in securities issued either directly by itself or on behalf of the States. A simple example is a security issued to an overseas lender directly by the Commonwealth, the proceeds of which are re-lent to the States in exchange for a domestic security. From the point of view of the aggregate net debt of the Commonwealth and the States, it would thus involve duplication if the sum of the securities on issue were regarded as representing the "net public debt".

Thus "securities on issue" is a clear-cut legal and financial concept which can be stated with precision. "Net public debt" is a concept which admits of many interpretations, and the following tables do not purport to record it. Analyses of changes in the over-all indebtedness of public authorities are given in the White Paper on National Income.

(a) The National Debt Sinking Fund was established by the National Debt Sinking Fund Act 1923-24, and came into operation on 11th August, 1923. By that Act, the Loans Sinking Fund, the Northern Territory Sinking Fund and the Port Augusta Railway Sinking Fund were merged into the National Debt Sinking Fund. All moneys standing to the credit of these funds were transferred to, and all investments of these funds became investments of, the National Debt Sinking Fund. The Treasury is required to pay into the Fund each year in accordance with the provisions of the National Debt Sinking Fund Act and other Acts moneys as set out hereunder. Payments made in accordance with sub-paragraphs 1 and 2 are made from revenue subject to a reduction equal to the total of all other amounts paid to the Fund excepting those referred to under 3 (a), 3 (b), 3 (c), 3 (d), 3 (e), 3 (f), 3 (g), 3 (h), and 4—

STATEMENT OF TRANSACTIONS.

1. INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND.

Subscriptions.

Australia joined the Fund in 1947, and has a quota of United States $400,000,000. Australia's subscription is equal to its quota and has been met as follows:—

|  | United States $ (millions). |
|--|------------------------------|

Transactions.

Australia purchased United States $20,000,000 from the Fund with Australian currency in 1949 and United States $30,000,000 in 1952. Australia repaid these drawings by repurchasing Australian currency from the Fund in 1953-54 and 1954-55. On 28th April, 1961, Australia purchased foreign currencies equivalent to United States $175,000,000 from the Fund with Australian currency. The drawing was repaid in full on 22nd March, 1962. As in the case of the previous transactions, the Reserve Bank arranged the purchase and repayment and the transactions were not reflected in Government accounts. At the time of the drawing Australia arranged a stand-by credit equivalent to United States $100,000,000 with the Fund for a period of one year from 1st May, 1961. No purchases of foreign currencies with Australian currency took place under this stand-by credit which was cancelled on 5th September, 1961.

On 30th April, 1959, Australia incurred an obligation under Article V, Section 7 (b) of the Fund Agreement to repurchase, with gold and convertible currencies, an amount of its original subscription in Australian currency to the Fund equivalent to United States $14,081,000. This obligation was discharged on 17th June, 1959, by the payment from the Consolidated Revenue Fund of £6,323,910.
